Arms and the Man - Bernard Shaw

Question-I

Choose two of the passages (a) to (c) and answer briefly the questions that follow : (20)

(a) The Man : Perhaps I'm quite wrong, you know: no doubt I am. Most likely he had got the wind of the cartridge business somehow, and knew it was a safe job.

Riana : That is to say, he was a pretender and a coward! You did not dare say that before.

(i) Who is referred to as 'he' and what is 'it'? (2)

(ii) How does the man describe him just before this extract? (2)

(ii) Why does the man say he might be wrong? (2)

(iv) Why does Riana call 'he' a pretender and a coward? (2)

(v) Give any two examples of allusion which Shaw uses to describe 'he' in Act 1. (2)

(b) Nicola: The Swiss gave me that for backing up the mistress's and Riana's lies about him. He's no fool, he isn't.

(i) Who is Nicola speaking to and what is referred to as 'that'? (2)

(ii) What is the dramatic significance of the old coat? (2)

(iii) How does Nicola compare Sergius with the Swiss? (2)

(iv) What is the point of conflict between Nicola and the person spoken to? (2)

(v) What is your opinion of the person spoken to? (2)

(c) But (with subdued passion) if I were Empress of Russia, above everyone in the world, then!! Ah then, though according to you I could show no courage at all, you should see, you should see.

Sergius : What would you do, most noble Empress?

(i) How does Louka answer to Sergius' question? (2)

(ii) What does she ask him immediately after this? What does she think he would do? (2)

(iii) What opinion do you form of Louka at this point? (2)

(iv) How does Sergius respond to her opinion of him? (2)

(v) Why, according to Sergius, can't he marry Louka? (2)
