Question -4

[10]

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:

The Forest Adventure

One day, Rahul and his sister Priya decided to explore the small forest near their village. The forest was full of tall trees, colourful flowers, and chirping birds. As they walked, they saw a sparkling stream. Priya wanted to catch some fish, but Rahul reminded her not to disturb nature.

They saw a family of deer grazing nearby. Rahul and Priya stood quietly, watching them. Suddenly, they heard a rustling sound. It was a small rabbit, hopping through the bushes.

Priya wanted to take it home, but Rahul explained that wild animals are happiest in their natural homes.

Before leaving, they picked up some fallen flowers and took a few pictures of the forest. Rahul and Priya promised to tell everyone how important it is to protect forests and animals.

Questions:

A) Answer the following questions: (2x2 = 4 Marks)

- What did Rahul and Priya see in the forest?
- Why did Rahul tell Priya not to take the rabbit home?

B) Fill in the blanks: (1x3 = 3 Marks)

Question-5

Read the poem and answer the questions that follow:

[10]

The Friendly Tree

Beneath the sun, so big and bright,
A little tree grew with all its might.
Its leaves were green, its trunk stood tall,
A shelter for creatures, one and all.
Birds would sing from branch to branch,
While squirrels played and bees would dance.
"Come rest in my shade," the tree would say,
"I'm here for you, both night and day."
The wind would whisper through its leaves,
Telling stories to the summer breeze.

The tree stood strong through rain and sun.

Helping nature, everyone.

Questions :

- a. What did the wind do through the leaves?
- b. What did the tree provide for animals and birds?
