

Half Yearly Exam (2023-24)
Subject: Geography
Class : VIII

M.M. 50

Q.1 : Multiple choice questions:

1. A software professional takes up a job and migrate from India in the USA. This is the example of:
a) intercontinental migration () b) intracontinental migration ()
c) internal migration () d) forced migration ()
2. Which of the following continents have more immigrants than native?
a) South America () b) Australian ()
c) North America () d) all of these ()
3. Rubber plants grow naturally in the:
a) Equatorial region () b) monsoon forest ()
c) cool temperature forest () d) steppes ()
4. Most of the working people in Asia are engaged in:
a) Forestry () b) farming () c) trading () d) manufacturing ()
5. Which of these does not cross Asia?
a) tropic of Cancer () b) tropic of Capricorn ()
c) equator () d) Arctic circle ()
6. Metropolitan area consist of:
a) Urban areas () b) rural areas ()
c) cities and satellite cities ()
d) cities, satellite cities and rural areas ()
7. Pick the incorrect pair:
a) Chandigarh-Mohali () b) New York City-New haven ()
c) Brisbane-ipswich () d) Hyderabad-Thane ()

(2)

8. Pick the major producers of iron ore in Asia:

- | | | | |
|-----------------------------|--------|--------------|--------|
| a) China, India and Siberia | () | b) Indonesia | () |
| c) the gulf countries | () | d) Japan | () |

9. Immigrants are people who migrate:

- | | | | |
|---------------------|--------|-------------------|--------|
| a) Out of a country | () | b) into a country | () |
| c) Seasonally | () | d) with animals | () |

10. Among the following continents, the last to be populated by humans is probably:

- | | | | |
|------------------|--------|--------------|--------|
| a) South America | () | b) Australia | () |
| c) Europe | () | d) Africa | () |

Q.2 : Fill in the blanks:

- is another name for human capital flight.
- The seasonal movement of pastoral people with their animals is called
- In the season, winds blow in towards a low pressure zone in Asia from the relatively cooler oceans.
- India, China and Sri Lanka are major producers of the beverage crop
- Crawley is a satellite city to
- A built-up area is densely covered by[✓].....
- and are two Indian cities that are among the most populous in the world.

Q.3 : Name them :

- Give two examples of cash crops grown in Asia.
- Name two kinds of minerals found in Asia.
- Name any two satellite cities near Delhi.
- Name two countries from which many people emigrate.
- Name any two countries of Asia that are highly industrialised.
- Name any two cities that have been chosen to be developed into smart cities under the smart city mission.

Q.4 : Short answer type questions:

1. In which parts of Asia is inland water transport important? Name the two waterways.
2. How did the Industrial revolution affect migration?
3. When can a city be called a smart city? Name any two smart city.
4. What are the causes of migration?

Q.5 : Distinguish between the following:

1. Push factor and Pull factor.
2. Intercontinental and Intra continental migration.
3. Urban area and metropolitan area.

Q.6 : Long answer type questions:

1. What makes people migrate from rural to urban areas ?
2. Where is the tropical monsoon type of climate found in Asia? Briefly describe the characteristic features of this kind of climate and the vegetation it supports.
3. What are the main causes and effects of brain drain?

Q.7 : On an outline map of Asia, mark the following:

1. The major rivers
2. Caspian sea, Black sea and lake Balkal
3. The highest plateau

